GREETINGS FROM FR. BILL

Thank you to all who participated in last Tuesday's call by Pope Francis and our bishops to pray, fast, and abstain for peace in the Holy Land. The more I learn about the ongoing events, the more distressing it all becomes. I am sure I am not alone in this struggle. Yet, we are in charge of being informed while also protecting our hearts. Our faith does not create a shield of indifference to the horrific plight of the innocent caught in the disturbances in our world. Rather, our faith is informed by the suffering of others and should compel us to act, and not become overwhelmed by fear or hatred.

How? Prayer! Prayer is our first and most important line of help. It is our direct (to God) and indirect (via the intercession of the Saints) appeal to the Holy Trinity to help change things in our world. It brings us closer to God and transforms us when we do it.

Our faith also may call us to fast in the face of such horrible evil. Fasting is a reduction of something for the good of others and ourselves. It brings us into solidarity with those who suffer. It refines and focuses our minds and bodies to not be victims of our whims and desires. It can help us appreciate what we have while recognizing those who have not.

Abstaining is the removal of something, not just its reduction. It stops the harm we may inflict on ourselves and others. It stops the hate that darkens our hearts. It removes selfishness at home or work. It stops our reactions and gestures we share towards poor drivers. . .funny how some of the small things are harder than the bigger things! It's akin to paying it forward, but the receiver may never know from where the grace came.

Again, thank you all for your faithful efforts. Please continue to pray for peace and consider fasting and abstaining through this difficult time in our world.

On a different note, Dcn. Brett is back this weekend! I'm sure he'll now be fluent in Italian, so please ask him some vexing questions in Italian. Hah! Bentornato, Dcn. Brett!

November is quickly approaching, bringing with it All Saints' Day on the first of the month. As such, we'll have Mass at 8:15am, 2:15pm (our School Mass), and 7:00pm on Wednesday, November 1st. Our 8:15am Mass will be live streamed and the recording available after for those unable to join us in-person.

Next weekend, we'll have the banners up in the church listing those who have died over the last year, and those names will be read aloud at all of our Masses. The Book of Remembrance will be in place at the front of the sanctuary to include additional names for our prayers during the month as well. We'll also have our Online Book of Remembrance for those unable to inscribe names in-person; online entries will be printed and added to the physical Book every Friday afternoon.

We are saddened to note the unexpected death of parishioner Albert Brien, who sang in our 9:30am Mass choir. Funeral services are scheduled for Saturday, November 25th at 11:00am. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

Were not our hearts burning within us?

Today, we celebrate World Mission Sunday (WMS), heeding Pope Francis' call to keep our "Hearts on fire, feet on the move." Our chief missionary, Pope Francis, invites us to set our hearts ablaze with faith and put our faith into action, serving God's mission with joy and enthusiasm. As Christians, we "cannot keep the Lord to ourselves" but are called through Baptism to be missionaries to the world!

Envelopes are available in the narthex for the WMS collection. This global effort supports the life-giving presence of the Church in over 1,100 mission dioceses worldwide, allowing them to minister to and uplift communities in need. You can also donate through our website, at h-t.org/second-collection.

AGING WITH GRACE

SPECIAL EVENT ON ORGAN, EYE & TISSUE DONATION

Our Aging with Grace ministry is excited to host Dr. Jackie Wirz, Executive Director of Donate Life Northwest, for a special presentation on organ, eye, and tissue donation!

Did you know that the Vatican supports organ donation for all Catholics and considers it a selfless act of compassion? Pope John Paul II affirmed that "a particularly praiseworthy" gesture expressing the culture of life "is the donation of organs. . . offering a chance of health and even of life itself to the sick who sometimes have no other hope" (Evangelium Vitae, no. 86).

Organ, eye, and tissue donation are essential parts of modern medicine – in fact, nearly 1 in 20 people will benefit from a tissue donation during their lives – but there is still a lot of misinformation and misunderstanding about the field. Join the conversation on Friday, November 10th from 1:00-2:30pm in the Fireside Room as Dr. Wirz shares the history of organ donation, how it saves lives, and debunks some of the most common myths.

All are invited to attend this free, informative event – no registration required! Contact Hilary Hutchinson hilaryhutch@yahoo.com, 503.526.0650 with any questions.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

Since the first century and time of St. Justin, martyr of the early Church, Catholics have been bringing Eucharist to any sick person who was unable to get to Mass. We know that Who we receive is so important, we take the time to bring Him in Holy Eucharist to those unable to get to Mass themselves.

From St. Justin, Martyr :

"And when the president has given thanks, and all the people have expressed their assent, those who are called by us deacons give to each of those present to partake of the bread and wine mixed with water over which the thanksgiving was pronounced, and to those who are absent they carry away a portion."

Last weekend, we had our annual Homebound Minister Training, recommissioning our 30 ministers for another year of service to our parish. They bring communion each week to parishioners who are unable to join us at Mass due to age, illness, or injury.

In addition, we serve the two Memory Care Facilities in Beaverton (Brookdale and Waterhouse Ridge) as well as the Senior Living Community, The Springs at Tanasbourne. This pastoral care is available to anyone in need in the parish. We can also assist families to provide this for the members of their family should they wish to provide this service for their loved ones.

Does anyone you know need Homebound visits? Or do you wish to learn how to be a Homebound Minister? Send me an email (erin@h-t.org), call the office, or go on our website and complete the inquiry form (h-t.org/homebound). We will gladly help you with whatever you need! +

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

Daniel Rodriguez & Catherine Sand – youngadults@h-t.org

FIRESIDE ROOM

Our ministry for young adults offers a variety of opportunities for those in their 20s and 30s to connect with each other and with Christ. Join us for book studies, bonfires, Adoration, board games, and more! Our current book study is The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis.

FAITH CAFÉ

Dana Morano, HT Faith Café Coordinator – dana@h-t.org

Faith Café was started in 2005 by a coalition of Beaverton-area churches, including Holy Trinity, to provide a free, drop-in, hot meal program for people of all ages. Before it opened, there was no such program operating between Hillsboro and downtown Portland.

Our parish at large and our Filipino Community are two of eight church congregations that rotate responsibility for preparing and servicing a hot meal to anyone who wants it, every Sunday at Bethel Community Church (near the Beaverton City Library). Since its founding, Faith Café has served over 150,000 meals and not one Sunday dinner has been missed – even at the height of the COVID pandemic!

On Sunday, November 5th, Faith Café board members will be in the cafeteria during Coffee & Donuts to share more information about their mission. Please plan on stopping by to hear stories, create a small craft project, view some photos, and learn how you can be part of this rewarding ministry! Feeling too excited about getting involved to wait until November 5th? Just send an email to Dana, our Faith Café Coordinator, and she'll get you connected! You can also learn more online at faithcafeor.org.

All are invited to a special event with Marie Barzen, founder of the non-profit St. Maria Maternity Home! She will speak about the inspiration behind the home, what has been accomplished thus far, what their model and plan for the home will be, and when they hope St. Maria's can open to the public. Join us in the Cafeteria from 6:30-8:30pm on Thursday, October 26th!

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

BINKY PATROL BINK-A-THON

Susan Finch – 503.807.4543 – sfinch@binkypatrol.org

A binky is a new, homemade blanket that can be sewn, knitted, crocheted, fleece tied, or quilted and ranges in size from a 3x3 square to a twin-size bed covering. Binky Patrol was founded in 1996 by parishioner Susan Finch as a way to bring comfort to children in a local battered-women's shelter. It has since blossomed into a nationwide effort of over 160 chapters and 20,000 volunteers to comfort children and teens who are homeless, in foster care, battling chronic and terminal illnesses, or recovering from traumatic events including domestic violence, abuse, and other violent crimes.

Thanks to a grant from the MrBallen Foundation, Binky Patrol is hosting a multi-state Bink-A-Thon – a one-day blanket-making event – this Saturday, October 28th, with one of them happening here at Holy Trinity! Fleece, fabric, and batting for making fleece-tied blankets will be provided, along with coffee, pastries, and fruit. Just bring a pair of sharp scissors and a warm heart! All ages are welcome (there must be at least one adult per four minors) and this does count for community service hours.

Join us on Saturday, October 28th in the Cafeteria from 9:00-2:00pm! Please sign-up at bit.ly/binkathon-1028 so coordinators know how many people to expect. If you want to help in other ways (like setup the day before or cleaning up afterwards), contact Susan.
