GREETINGS FROM FR. BILL

Listing the names of those who died in the last year on banners in the church for the month of November is a Holy Trinity tradition that I have found very moving. There are 47 names on our banners this year; our youngest death was due to miscarriage, and our oldest death was aged 102. This custom is also hard at times because we must have a cut-off date to get the names printed and banners assembled. Please know that we have not forgotten them, and they will be at the top of next year's banners. God bless each of those who have died, and all who grieve their loss.

Also at the front of the church is the Book of Remembrance for you to include additional names for our prayers during the month. For those unable to inscribe names in-person, we have our Online Book of Remembrance available at h-t.org/remembrance. The entries will be printed and added to the physical Book every Friday.

As I mentioned earlier, this Wednesday is All Saints' Day and is a Holy Day of ~~Obligation~~ Opportunity. As such, we'll have Mass at 8:15am, 2:05pm (our School Mass), and 7:00pm. Our 8:15am Mass will be live streamed and the recording available after for those unable to join us in-person.

I'd like to turn now to the Synod on Synodality, which is just concluding its first session (the second will occur next year). Over the last three weeks, I have received numerous questions about what is going on or being said. In general, there is nothing to actually to say about details of what is being shared at the Synod since Pope Francis has called on all members in the Synod to maintain confidentiality. Some social media influencers and outlets have criticized this approach of keeping the details of the discussions in the sessions confidential.

I realize that this may seem somehow undemocratic, but, to be blunt, this is not a democratic process; it is a synodal process, which is, ironically, the focus of the Synod itself. Remember, it is a synod on synodality, where the participants (the Church throughout the world) have been invited to pray, listen, and share their hearts. That means millions have already had their chance to participate at the level which was proper to them (including you and me).

I would be cautious of those who continue to argue as if their voices were not part of the process. This is not a synod on a particular topic, such as the recent Synod on the Amazon or Synod on the Family. My concern is the worry that so many people have expressed, which has been solely fueled by pundits outside of the current level of the process. I've read articles and comments saying that synods are non-historical or that this particular synod is just another tool of the heretical Pope Francis — neither of which are true. I urge you all to discern carefully about any voices not actually involved in the current level of the synod's process.

I vividly remember hearing from worried parishioners about the Synod on the Amazon as it was happening. When it was all said and done, nothing doctrinal or earth-shattering was concluded. I found it curious that those who were so worried never came back to me sharing that they were thankful that no heresy was declared or that they were mistaken to be so worried. There will always be pundits and those who disagree, but remember: the Holy Spirit is guiding the Church. Her history, given its checkered past of human failures while never erring in doctrine, confirms that truth to me.

So, instead of sharing any commentary, given that I am not involved in the current synodal phase, I recommend reading Bishop Robert Barron's latest article, "A Day at the Synod." Here's an excerpt that stuck out to me:

"The overall mood of the synod I would describe as businesslike and serene. Important and controversial matters are being discussed, and it is very clear that not everyone is of the same opinion, but I have not heard one raised voice or polemical tone. Very occasionally, following an intervention, a smattering of applause might be heard, but typically, each speech is met with a respectful silence."

This still may not be enough for those who are distrustful and demand doctrinal clarity. Remember, the focus of this synod is to learn the process of synodality, whereby the Church reflects by listening and walking with each other. I want to urge us to have no fear, trust the Holy Spirit, and consider reducing or being more aware of one's consumption of the "news" from outside pundits regarding the Synod. I encourage you all to read Bishop Barron's article in full (bit.ly/BishopBarronSynod) as well as a letter written by the participants of the synod (bit.ly/ParticipantLetterSynod).

Blessings to Kai'omi-Alveah Pangelinan and Kobichimra Okonkwo, who were baptized this weekend!

FAITH FORMATION & MINISTRY NEWS

RELIGIOUS ED. | SACRAMENT PREP.

Chris Storm – cstorm@htsch.org

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Upcoming Class Schedule:

- ★ 10/29 – Child Protection Lessons (K-5)
- ★ 11/5 – Reconciliation Retreat Day
- ★ 11/12 – Class as usual

CONFIRMATION

Our next class is on October 29th! Remember to bring a copy of your baptism certificate with you.

Don't forget: Confirmation candidates who will also be receiving First Communion this year are asked to attend the our later afternoon session, and to arrive 30 minutes early at 4:00pm in the Church to meet with Fr. Anthony. Thank you!

AGING WITH GRACE

SPECIAL EVENT ON ORGAN & BODY DONATION

Our Aging with Grace ministry is excited to host Dr. Jackie Wirz, Executive Director of Donate Life Northwest, and Tamara Ostervoss, Director of OHSU's Body Donation Program, for a special presentation on organ, eye, and tissue donation and body donation!

Did you know that the Vatican supports both organ donation and whole body donation for all Catholics and considers it a selfless act of compassion? Pope John Paul II affirmed that "a particularly praiseworthy" gesture expressing the culture of life "is the donation of organs. . .offering a chance of health and even of life itself to the sick who sometimes have no other hope" (Evangelium Vitae, no. 86).

Organ, eye, and tissue donation are essential parts of modern medicine – in fact, nearly 1 in 20 people will benefit from a tissue donation during their lives – but there is still a lot of misinformation and misunderstanding about the field. Join the conversation on Friday, November 10th from 1:00-2:30pm in the Fireside Room as Dr. Wirz shares the history of organ donation, how it saves lives, and debunks some common myths. Ms. Ostervoss will also speak about OHSU's body donation program and the profound significance such a gift has to medical education.

All are invited to attend this free, informative event; no registration required! Contact Hilary Hutchinson (hilaryhutch@yahoo.com, 503.526.0650) with questions.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

Some things are worth remembering and some traditions are holy in and of themselves. November, for Catholics, is that way. Every November we do the same thing, we remember all who have died. As a parish, we especially remember those whose funeral Mass was done here, and we erect a place where all of our beloved dead can be listed and prayed for.

We count on this tradition. When we suffer a difficult death, this tradition is live giving, especially when consolation is a difficult thing to come by. Seeing my mother's and Mark's father's names on the banners on the altar, hearing their names read, and witnessing the prayers was holy, comforting, and gave us hope.

One November, I will never forget when I heard from one of our parish college teens. It was her first time away from home and she remembered the parish tradition. She called me and asked me to put the name of a young friend of hers who had just died by suicide. She didn't know what else to do, but she remembered our church's tradition. I took his name, promising to pray for her in her sadness, and for him in his. His name is Harley. To this day, I continue to add him to our book, so we can remember him and pray for him as a part of our beloved dead.

This tradition begins this weekend in advance of All Saints' Day, on November 1st, and Feast of All Souls, on November 2nd, and continues all month long. Let us pray:

Prayer for Eternal Rest (The Requiem Prayer)

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.*

Amen

WOMEN'S PRAYER GROUP

Irene Tarango – htwpg23@gmail.com

New and regular attendees alike: please join us for this week's gathering on Wednesday, November 1st at 6:30pm in the Fireside Room!

Because it is All Saints' Day, we'll have a shortened meeting before attending the 7:00pm Mass together as a group. Doors will open at 6:15pm for socializing so we can start promptly at 6:30pm. Hope to see you there!

Safe Hazardous Waste Disposal

Did you know that Metro hosts FREE collection events for household hazardous waste throughout the spring and fall? This includes paint, sharps, thermometers, propane, pesticides, batteries, chemicals, auto products, and a host of other items. The last collection event for the year is this Saturday, 11/4 from 9:00-2:00pm at the Intel campus in Aloha (3585 SW 198th Ave.), so it's the perfect time to clean out your garage and gather it up for safe and FREE disposal! You'll find the full list of accepted items and details on how to properly prepare materials at bit.ly/metrohazardwaste.

Diaper Drive! Our current totals are: 6,608 wipes, 1,442 diapers, and 124 training pants ("Pull-Ups"). The collection barrel will stay in the narthex for donations through daily Mass on Tuesday, October 31st.

FAITH CAFÉ

Dana Morano, HT Faith Café Coordinator – dana@h-t.org

Faith Café was started in 2005 by a coalition of Beaverton-area churches, including Holy Trinity, to provide a free, drop-in, hot meal program for people of all ages. Before it opened, there was no such program operating between Hillsboro and downtown Portland.

Our parish at large and our Filipino Community are two of eight church congregations that rotate responsibility for preparing and servicing a hot meal to anyone who wants it, every Sunday at Bethel Community Church (near the Beaverton City Library). Since its founding, Faith Café has served over 150,000 meals and not one Sunday dinner has been missed — even at the height of the COVID pandemic!

Next Sunday, November 5th, Faith Café board members will be in the cafeteria during Coffee & Donuts to share more information about their mission. Please plan on stopping by to hear stories, create a small craft project, view some photos, and learn how you can be part of this rewarding ministry! Feeling too excited about getting involved to wait until next week? Just send an email to Dana, our Faith Café Coordinator, and she'll get you connected! You can also learn more online at faithcafeor.org.
