GREETINGS FROM FR. BILL

"In you, O Lord, I have found my peace." I found this refrain, from this weekend's Responsorial Psalm, to be helpful for me given all the events of the past several weeks. If we deep-dive into the news, we will inevitably find darkness and be tempted to despair. But, do not be upset. Do not give in to, what St. Pope John XXIII spoke about at the dawn of the Second Vatican Council, "the prophets of doom." Rather, "the Church is ever renewed, she is always reborn" (Pope Benedict XVI, Statement to Seminarians of Rome, 2013).

We Catholics may sometimes be critiqued as having a morbid fixation with the dead. After all, we have an entire month (November) where we, unofficially, remember them. I would like to counter that the Church has not a morbid fixation, but a holy reverence for those whose we love who have passed beyond this world into eternity. Our love is alive and deep for those already in heaven. This is what we celebrated on All Saints' Day. We are celebrating the greatest gift God has bestowed on his faithful short of our mere existence. This is another reason to have peace. So, please consider writing the names down of your departed loved ones in our Book of Remembrance (available at the front of the sanctuary and Online, which are added to the physical book).

Related, I had several people ask where the Book of Intentions went last week, as it was no longer present in the narthex. Being that I am still new-ish to the parish, I had no response. Office staff confirmed that, as is our tradition, the Book of Intentions was removed to avoid confusion with the Book of Remembrance. Don't worry; it will return after Thanksgiving. Again, be at peace.

The war in the Holy Land continues, which is another call for us to pray to our Lord for peace. We can pray for the political mechanics to turn for a change in direction, but know that our prayer for a birth of peace by supernatural mechanics is even more powerful. To again quote Pope Benedict XVI, remember, "the future really belongs to God: this is the great certainty of our life, the great, true optimism that we know."

So, do not be upset. Do not let sadness overcome you. Each of us are responsible for our own joy and peace, and it is a sure bet that such joy and peace can only be found in our Lord. May you have a blessed week. Go out and share your joy and peace that comes from our Lord, for our world and community are in serious need of it and of Him!

Burial services were held last week for Karen Walker. Funeral services are scheduled for Pamela Hill on Friday, November 17th at 11:00am and for Albert Brienon on Saturday, November 25th at 11:00am. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace.

END OF LIFE SEMINAR SERIES

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS COORDINATED BY OUR HOLY TRINITY HEALTH MINISTRY

Our Health Ministry has been hard at work coordinating a series of three seminars to help inform our community about end-of-life (EOL) issues and planning. These seminars will take place between September 2023 and January 2024, and each session will take place on a Saturday in the Fireside Room from 9:00-11:00am.

† ~~September 30th — Dying, Death & Funerals~~

† November 18th — Discussions, Decisions & Documents: Advanced Directives and POLST

† January 20th — Wills, Finances & Estate Planning

Our next seminar, Discussions, Decisions & Documents: Advanced Directives and POLST, will be led by Donna Routh from our Health Ministry. Discussions with loved ones about the types of medical treatment that we would wish to have at the end of our life are difficult yet vitally important. Understanding the different documents and terms can be confusing and stressful. With a focus on the Oregon documents, this seminar will explain what they are, when and for whom they are appropriate, and how they work together to ensure that our wishes are respected if we are unable to speak for ourselves. These discussions and decisions are a gift to our loved ones that can ease their stress, reduce potential conflicts among family members, and provide them with peace of mind. Everyone will be given valuable resource materials to take home.

Light refreshments will be provided, and we hope all will walk away more prepared and confident about EOL issues. No sign-ups necessary, and all ages welcome! We look forward to seeing you Saturday, November 18th in the Fireside Room at 9:00am!

AGING WITH GRACE

SPECIAL EVENT ON ORGAN & BODY DONATION

Our Aging with Grace ministry is excited to host Dr. Jackie Wirz, Executive Director of Donate Life Northwest, and Tamara Ostervoss, Director of OHSU's Body Donation Program, for a special presentation on organ, eye, and tissue donation and body donation!

Did you know that the Vatican supports both organ donation and whole body donation for all Catholics and considers it a selfless act of compassion? Pope John Paul II affirmed that "a particularly praiseworthy" gesture expressing the culture of life "is the donation of organs. . .offering a chance of health and even of life itself to the sick who sometimes have no other hope" (Evangelium Vitae, no. 86).

Organ, eye, and tissue donation are essential parts of modern medicine – in fact, nearly 1 in 20 people will benefit from a tissue donation during their lives – but there is still a lot of misinformation and misunderstanding about the field. Join the conversation this Friday, November 10th from 1:00-2:30pm in the Fireside Room as Dr. Wirz shares the history of organ donation, how it saves lives, and debunks some common myths. Ms. Ostervoss will also speak about OHSU's body donation program and the profound significance such a gift has to medical education.

All are invited to attend this free, informative event; no registration required! Contact Hilary Hutchinson (hilaryhutch@yahoo.com, 503.526.0650) with questions.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

We have had, including Pope Francis, 266 Popes. Of those, 33 have been martyrs. You might say that's not so bad – but it was our first 33 Popes who were ALL martyred!

Many of the first Christians were martyred, and Christians throughout the ages have given their lives as a testimony to their faith in Jesus. Tertullian, one of the early Church Fathers of the second century, said "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church." Despite this gory and challenging example, the Church grows and thrives.

Friends, faith in Jesus is something worth dying for. Being a follower of Jesus means giving everything for who we believe in. Some do this in small ways, and others at a higher price. It will cost us something. Thankfully, most of us will not be asked to pay that ultimate price, but we need to be willing to, should it be asked of us.

The end of November is the end of our liturgical year. The banners with the names of our beloved dead grace the walls of our sanctuary, all reminders of where we hope to go at the end of our lives and Who we want to spend eternity with. Let's ask the intercession of the holy martyrs of the Church for the strength we need to live our faith courageously and to bear witness to the Truth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen +

Synod on Synodality

"Brothers and sisters, the General Assembly of the Synod has now concluded. In this 'conversation of the Spirit,' we have experienced the loving presence of the Lord and discovered the beauty of fraternity. We have listened to one another and above all, in the rich variety of our backgrounds and concerns, we have listened to the Holy Spirit. Today we do not see the full fruit of this process, but with farsightedness we look to the horizon opening up before us. The Lord will guide us and help us to be a more synodal and missionary Church, a Church that adores God and serves the women and men of our time, going forth to bring to everyone the consoling joy of the Gospel."

– Pope Francis, Homily at the Closing Mass for the Synod of Bishops, October 29, 2023

FAITH CAFÉ

Dana Morano, HT Faith Café Coordinator – dana@h-t.org

Faith Café was started in 2005 by a coalition of Beaverton-area churches, including Holy Trinity, to provide a free, drop-in, hot meal program for people of all ages. Before it opened, there was no such program operating between Hillsboro and downtown Portland.

Our parish at large and our Filipino Community are two of eight church congregations that rotate responsibility for preparing and servicing a hot meal to anyone who wants it, every Sunday at Bethel Community Church (near the Beaverton City Library). Since its founding, Faith Café has served over 150,000 meals and not one Sunday dinner has been missed – even at the height of the COVID pandemic!

This Sunday, November 5th, Faith Café board members will be in the cafeteria during Coffee & Donuts to share more information about their mission. Please plan on stopping by to hear stories, create a small craft project, view some photos, and learn how you can be part of this rewarding ministry! Not able to make it downstairs this weekend? Just send an email to Dana, our Faith Café Coordinator, and she'll get you connected! You can also learn more online at faithcafeor.org.
