GREETINGS FROM FR. BILL

Happy Gaudete Sunday! The word gaudete (pronounced gow-DAY-tay), is Latin for “rejoice.” It comes from the introit, or entrance antiphon, of the Mass of this day. This weekend, the Church wants us to have a momentary sense of gladness and rejoicing as we round “third base” of our Advent season, also signified in the rose-colored candle lit in our Advent wreath and our rose-colored vestments.

There is a parallel Sunday in Lent (its fourth Sunday, since there are five total in Lent), entitled Laetare Sunday (pronounced leh-TAR-ee), which also translates as “rejoice.” Often not understood, Advent is a penitential season akin to Lent. Since Advent is sprinkled with a greater sense of hope, the violet or purple used in these two seasons are sometime distinguished by different hues.

Turning our attention to next weekend, the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas practically land on top of each other! So, I want to avoid confusion and be as clear as possible with our Mass schedule:

- ✠ Weekend Masses for 4th Sunday of Advent are Saturday at 5:30pm & Sunday at 8:00 & 9:30am.
- ✠ We will not have our 11:15am Mass next Sunday.
- ✠ Christmas Eve Masses are later in the day at 4:00, 6:00, and 8:00pm. Only the 4:00pm Mass will be live streamed.
- ✠ Christmas Day Mass is at 9:00am.

Both the 4th Sunday of Advent (Saturday evening or Sunday morning) and Christmas (Sunday evening or Monday morning) are Holy Days of Obligation. So, you “have” to go to Mass twice over those three days — once for Advent Week 4 and once for Christmas. And yes, you would receive Communion at each Mass, even if both are on the same day.

Sunday is our “game day” when we come to Mass for worship, so Christmas is like our Superbowl! When you come to Mass, be mindful that we’ll have many visitors, including folks who have been away or are at Mass for the first time. With the increasing number of non-church goers, Christmas is the greatest opportunity for us to show our love for Jesus and how glad we are to have them join us in worship by our actions and being the most excellent of hosts.

Everyone has their preferred parking places and pews, but it would be very off-putting to folks if we cut them off in the parking lot or began to reserve seats. For some, it will only take one small bump in their plans for them to turn around and go home. Consider parking farther away than you normally do. Assume someone else will be sitting where you normally sit. Make an extra effort to greet those around you, especially those whom you do not know. Christmas is important to everyone, so please put forward your best attitude of patience. I know you all to be so kind and loving, but even the best of us can get snarly when things aren’t how we expected.

Our sacrificial love is what our visitors need to encounter! Who knows what wounds, baggage, or hesitations they will bring when they come to church. Make it your goal to meet someone new and show them how gracious we are as a parish community. We want them to encounter our Lord in the short time they will be with us and to consider coming again. You will be Jesus’ presence to them. Simply be the wonderful, generous parishioners that you are, mindful that joy begets more joy!

Funeral services are scheduled for Dan O’Leary next Wednesday, December 27th at 11:00am. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace.

HOLY TRINITY’S EPIPHANY PARTY

Monette Mallari – monette.mallari@gmail.com – 503.307.3438

Come celebrate with us at our annual Epiphany Party on Sunday, January 7th at 12:30pm in the cafeteria! Refreshments, ham, and rolls are provided; other food assignments are based on your last name: A – O: main/side dish P – Z: salad

For dessert, all parishioners are invited to make a King Cake to display and share! Ministry leaders can provide you with a plastic baby figurine (to represent baby Jesus), which should be inserted into the cake before the party. Those who find the statuette in their slice of cake can redeem it at the party for a special prize! We’ll provide serving utensils, but please label your serving dishes.

This is the last weekend (December 16-17) that Food & Volunteer sign-up sheets will be in the narthex! Students needing community service hours are especially welcome; whatever your comfort zone, there’s always room for a helping hand, and we’ll find you a fun task! Contact Monette with questions.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

It's GAUDETE SUNDAY! We're now more than halfway through Advent, and Gaudete Sunday marks this point, telling us to hold on, we are almost there! We see a rose color candle lit in our Advent wreath. Gaudete means REJOICE! Everything the Church does to prepare us is always to make us holier versions of ourselves, more aligned to the way that Christ calls us to be. Our praying this Advent allows God to transform us to more closely be someone who is holy, watchful, patiently waiting for the Christ our heart yearns for. And we wait "in joyful hope" for a glimpse of Heaven. Today's Second Reading (1 Thes 5:16-24) gives us a roadmap:

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise prophetic utterances. Test everything; retain what is good. Refrain from every kind of evil."

"May the God of peace make you perfectly holy and may you entirely, spirit, soul, and body, be preserved blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will also accomplish it."

Let's do as St. Paul says. Show our kindness to everyone. Remember that Jesus is already right here in our midst, so there is nothing to be afraid of. Talk to God with our thankful prayers, expecting God's grace and peace, guiding our minds and hearts. What are we grateful for, sorry about, asking Jesus for? Tell Jesus in our prayer this Gaudete Sunday. + when we had our cars loaded up (and I do mean loaded!) to drop everything off. As we made our deliveries to the very grateful and

Preparing the Way: The Third Week of Advent

From the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns Advent Reflections

"I rejoice heartily in the Lord, in my God is the joy of my soul." (Is 61:10)

"Eating locusts and grasshoppers, wearing camel skins, preaching repentance, living in a desert among wild animals, and facing a gruesome death aren't images that provoke joy. Yet today's readings, connect John the Baptist to. . .advent joy, which asks us to step back and reflect on a different path to rejoicing. . .

"[Gill's] predicament could have made him ask: how can there be joy in a world so full of violence? Yet, despite everything, he is filled with joy, imbuing a well-ripened truth: 'It is not joy that makes us grateful, it is gratitude that gives us joy' (Benedictine monk David Steindl-Rast)."

Reflect: How is God calling you into a deeper experience of giving and gratitude during this season?

Respond: Learn about the Protect Vulnerable Immigrant Youth Act and join the USCCB in calling for its passage: <https://mogc.info/TYA>.

Pray: Lord, help us to remember that we are always on a journey with our brothers and sisters who have been uprooted by violence, natural disasters, and poverty, and with You, to a new way of life in abundance.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Jerry & Vicky Maurseth – vjmaurseth@gmail.com

Each year during Advent, we prepare our hearts to celebrate the birth of Christ our Savior. As we anticipate this joyful celebration, we recall the journey of the Holy Family from Nazareth to Bethlehem. There are women in our communities who are pregnant, poor, perhaps without a home, and in great need. They may feel alone, scared, and overwhelmed, not knowing where to turn. To find resources to help pregnant moms in our community, visit h-t.org/respect-life-ministry.

CHRIST RENEWS HIS PARISH (CRHP) WOMEN'S WEEKEND RETREAT

Helen Hamilton, Registration Coordinator – 503.807.2597

Allison Connelly, Financial Asst. – crhp.women.ht@gmail.com

This Christmas, give your mother, sister, aunt, cousin, or friend – or even yourself – the gift of a peaceful weekend with the Lord! Attend our CRHP weekend retreat on March 9-10 and unwind in the serenity of the Our Lady of Peace Retreat House here in Beaverton.

Our theme for the weekend is inspired by Colossians 3:12 and St. Paul's directive to "clothe yourself with compassion". You'll share the Gospel, attend Mass, visit the gift shop, walk the gardens, have the opportunity for confession, experience the love of Christ, and build lasting friendships with other women in the parish.

The $200 registration fee covers your overnight stay and all meals, and Holy Trinity gladly provides financial assistance if it is needed. You can pick-up a brochure with more details at any time at the Information Desk in the narthex, or simply go online to learn more (and to register!) at h-t.org/crhp.
