GOOD NEWS FROM FR. BILL

Fr. William Holtzinger, Pastor – frbill@h-t.org

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Welcome to something new that I'd like to call our "Good News Bulletin", because it is chock-full of reflections from our staff detailing the wonderful things that have happened in this year. In an environment of so much negativity, punditry, and bad news, we need to count our blessings and focus our hearts on the good things that God is doing. I would like to give praise to God for two main areas: our staff and our ministry volunteers.

As I look back on this year, we said goodbye to Michelle Dieter (Food Closet Coordinator), Nick Krautscheid (Pastoral Coordinator), and Ashley Sheridan (School Principal). Each moved on to important responsibilities that God was calling them to do. I am so thankful for the wonderful work they did to help us further the mission of the Church. I look back on their time with us with great fondness, most especially for their faithfulness, positive demeanors, and drive to promote the Gospel. As for the rest of the staff at the Parish and the School, all I witnessed were "can-do" attitudes founded in a deep faith that God will work things out as needed. And so He did.

Near the beginning of the year, Michelle shared that she was going to be moving and would need to step down from being the Food Closet Coordinator. In the months that followed, Dcn. Brett was watching and noting who in that ministry had the panache and skills to take over. His first choice was Charlie Knapp. Not knowing Charlie (at the time), I trusted Dcn. Brett's wisdom, and let's just say the Food Closet has been transformed in a new way that only Charlie could do. If you know Charlie, you know exactly what I am talking about!

After Nick's departure in May, Dcn. Brett and I began discerning where God was taking us. I asked Dcn. Brett if this would be a good time for him to return to the Pastoral Associate position instead of Business Manager. After some discernment, he felt called to do just that. Thank you God for leading us! Then we turned our attention to his successor. Without talking ahead of time, we both prayed and we found that we instantly agreed that Dana Morano would be a great choice. I am so thankful she said "yes" to the invitation of ministry as our Business Manager.

After receiving notice from Ashley just before the school year ended, the School staff was a little worried about who would follow after her. Again, upon reflection and prayer, we asked the "Math Queen" of the school, Sarah Dummer, to consider the position. Sarah quickly stepped up as our interim Principal and there was immediate rejoicing from the teachers and staff at the school. She has been a true blessing, having long-term (12 years!) knowledge of the school and its culture.

Each week, I meet with what I call our PLT, or Parish Leadership Team, to guide the Parish and School. It is made up of myself, Deacon Brett, Fr. Anthony, Dana, and Sarah. I love working in a team, and I am so thankful to be part of this PLT and the team that makes up the office staff in general. What an amazing and competent group of ministers. Thank you, God! I feel spoiled to be amidst such amazing people.

So, those are some notable events with our Parish and School staff. As for the ministry volunteers, there are simply too many to count. But, each day, and especially on weekends, I have witnessed acts of generosity and sacrifice for the good of the parish with the result of a vibrant community desirous of ongoing and transformative encounters with our Lord.

Thank you all for modeling love to me and being patient with my foibles, forgetfulness, and moments of "Pastor-Flabby-Brain-Syndrome." I look forward to our continued journey in faith into the new year! Finally, I offer this Scripture for us all to ponder as we approach the new year:

"[I] urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all." (Ephesians 4:1-6)

GOOD NEWS FROM BRETT

Dcn. Brett Edmonson, Pastoral Associate – brett@h-t.org

Happy New Year, everyone! As we say goodbye to 2023, I am grateful for all of you.

✧ For your encouragement and faithfulness as we've experienced so many personnel transitions. You help

Holy Trinity to remain Holy Trinity, despite the changes.

- ✧ For the way you always rise to the occasion whenever there's a need, whether that's increased support for the Food Closet, additional volunteers for one of our many ministries, or your rock-solid dependability for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal.
- ✧ For your patience as we've begun rebuilding our sound system, with all the difficulties that has brought.
- ✧ For all the little acts of kindness and service by which you take care of one another, and which go largely unseen.
- ✧ For the way you faithfully show up week after week, at a time when it's not easy to be part of a Catholic Church beset by controversies and divisions and pressures both internal and external.

May 2024 be full of blessings for you and your families, and may the Lord be close to each of us.

GOOD NEWS FROM PAT

Pat Linton, Sacramental Admin. Asst. – pat@h-t.org

I am rewarded daily in my work coordinating sacraments and scheduling our liturgical ministries. It is my honor to welcome new infants into the church by arranging for their baptism with their parents and godparents. Many times these are new families to our parish, which allows me to explain all the ministries offered. It is a real blessing to see these new parishioners at Mass and visit with them. It is especially touching to help these little ones take their next step when they receive First Communion.

Weddings are one of the most rewarding sacraments I coordinate. The couple shares how they met, their exciting stories and what their future holds for them. It's such a happy occasion for everyone to witness. It touches me to later see them at Mass and address them as "Mr. & Mrs."

The ministries of Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers are very important to our Masses. I am so fortunate to have such dedicated parishioners which I can schedule to fill these roles, and I can also call a friend.

I feel very blessed to be part of the Parish staff and have the opportunity to assist our parishioners!

GOOD NEWS FROM FR. ANTHONY

Fr. Anthony Hoangphan, Parochial Vicar – franthony@h-t.org

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! As I look back to the last six months of being a priest, I am grateful firstly for my assignment at Holy Trinity to work under the direction of Fr. Bill and with a staff who is quite knowledgeable when it comes to ministering to God's people and our school; and secondly for your warm welcome and your hellos and goodbyes at the beginning and end of each Mass.

As someone completely new to priestly ministry, you have allowed me to experiment with different preaching methods. Our Pastoral Staff meet weekly providing feedback and input as faith sharing and it has been quite beneficial to me. It gives me a better understanding of the culture and the needs here at Holy Trinity as I form and share my homiletic thoughts with you.

Besides celebrating Mass, hearing confessions, and learning the administration of a parish, I am also grateful that I have been able to spend time on a daily basis interacting with our school students. They continue to keep me young! Homebound Ministry is one where I have continually improved. You welcome me to your home to anoint you and the visits afterward are always something I treasure as you share much of your love for Holy Trinity with me. I have learned much from your commitment to Holy Trinity as a parish. My next important ministry is marriage preparation. So far, I am working with six couples who are preparing themselves for their future marriages in the church. I am grateful for Pope Saint John Paul II's Theology of the Body which I have drawn a lot of materials from.

Thank you all for your hospitality and patience! I look forward to journeying with you in the love that God has bestowed on each one of us in the new year. May God, through the intercessions of our Blessed Mother Mary, Saint Joseph, and all the angels and saints, keep you in his care and give you His peace!

GOOD NEWS FROM CHRIS

Chris Storm, Director of Religious Education & Sacramental Preparation – cstorm@htsch.org

Religious Education

I find myself constantly feeling both grateful and humbled for the people in this ministry. The way the children express their faith and enter so sincerely into moments of prayer sometimes catches me by surprise!

One Sunday morning, a very small child (about six years old) told me he would like to pray for his dog that had just passed away, and as we prayed together his little frown turned into a big smile. He was experiencing the joy of prayer in a way I don't always do myself, and it reminded me that Jesus commanded his disciples (including us!) to become more like children themselves.

Even more, I'm amazed by the generosity of our volunteer team. Each one of them brings their unique mix of strengths and talents to the children they lead. Miss Beth always has some fun art projects for her kindergartners, and Neela is especially good at helping the children to enter into prayer and ritual. Heather leads our 2nd grade group with creativity and patience, backed up by her son, Jake, and her mother, Lorna. Corrie, Peter, Sofia and Lydia have a curious way of making Church teachings interesting and even exciting to our 5th and 6th grade students.

It's my privilege to observe them each create the kind of friendships, trust, and shared experience that root our young generation strongly in their faith. They don't hear it often enough, but I'm grateful for and inspired by them every Sunday!

Confirmation

Because Confirmation is a sacrament of going out into the world to serve and evangelize others, we don't always get to enjoy the fruits of the work that goes into preparing young people for it. I was recently at one of our local grocery stores when a young woman approached me right there in the produce section. She was one of our Confirmation candidates from a few years back, and we hadn't seen each other in quite some time. "I didn't really get what you were saying when I took the classes," she told me, "but now that I'm out here in the real world it totally makes sense!"

It warms my heart to encounter our young Catholics after their Confirmation. I see Colby greeting people at the door of the church on Sunday mornings, and Cameron and Dominic volunteering together at our Food Closet. Preethi is both a greeter and a lector at our 9:30am Mass, and Jocelyn is singing in the choir.

Many others are serving in ways that the parish community can't see: Paige began leading retreats for other high school students, and Lorelei started a high school rosary club. The list goes on!

Our teens aren't disappearing. They're living their faith all over the place! I'm so thankful for their presence in our community and their witness to the world. We see some here at the parish all the time, but I'm inspired by those chance encounters that show me how others put their faith into action elsewhere — on the football field, in their schools, and even at the produce department.

GOOD NEWS FROM CHARLIE

Some highlights from 2023 at your Food Closet Ministry (stats as of 12/22):

- ★ More than 26,550 adults and children served through this Ministry; this is the equivalent of feeding the city of Tualatin or West Linn!
- ★ More than 27,160 pounds of donations; that's equal to 13.5 tons, 14 Liberty Bells, or 8 cars!
- ★ Permanent roof extension built, protecting our clients and volunteers every day.
- ★ Moved, cleaned, and rebuilt a greenhouse, so fresh vegetables can still be grown and provided to our clients during the winter.
- ★ In its first season, we harvested over 980 lbs. of produce from the "Michelle's Legacy" Food Closet Garden!

Every day, I am inspired by the epic generosity of our parish and the countless individuals who donate to the Food Closet. I am inspired by the multi-talented and multi-capable volunteers, who truly epitomize "service before self." I am inspired by the resilience of our clients, who exhibit kindness and thankfulness even in challenging times. And I am inspired by our great Holy Trinity Staff, who face every challenge with compassion and grace!

GOOD NEWS FROM ERIN

Erin Nieves, Pastoral Assistant – erin@h-t.org

With the variety of ministries I am a part of (RCIA, Adult Sacraments, Homebound Ministry, Annulment Facilitation, Altar Servers, and our online Prayer Ministry), at the root of them are people, the amazing volunteers who generously serve, and those who these ministries benefit.

We have a team of 11 for RCIA who come every Tuesday night, September to post-Easter, to guide our new Catholics and the adults completing their sacraments. We have 25 Homebound Ministers who bring Jesus in the Eucharist to our Homebound every week. There are 60+ "pray-ers" in our Prayer Ministry (anyone can do this – sign-up at h-t.org/prayer-ministry/!), who pray for the intentions submitted online, that fellow members send out, and that I receive calls and emails about from our parish family. We have 75 Altar Servers and their generous parents who make sure their children are available to serve the community. These are only part of the good work our Parish does, week in and week out.

The Church is alive and well at Holy Trinity! In the last 15 years, I have been blessed to be part of a variety of ministerial work for the parish. More than that, Mark and I have called HT our parish home since we came to Oregon in 2004. And for all of this: Thanks be to God! +

GOOD NEWS FROM DANA

I started my position as Business Manager here at Holy Trinity this past September. Since I've been here, I have constantly felt the Holy Spirit's movement throughout the church, school, and office. In addition to working in the office, I also volunteer at RCIA and Faith Café.

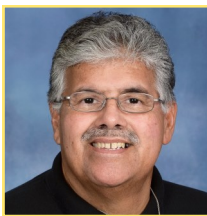

I am always amazed that each year in RCIA (I've been helping out for about 6-7 years), something new stirs in my soul as I walk the path with the various and unique individuals wanting to grow closer to the Lord and be more fully part of the Church. Erin's teaching and leadership (along with teachings this year from Fr. Bill, Fr. Anthony, and Ken Canedo) is not only knowledge-based but presented in such a comfortable and gracious way, you can't help but feel the energy and excitement grow in these individuals as Easter Vigil approaches.

At Faith Café, I am humbled by the determination and love each of the Faith Café Board members and volunteers show to our clients, as well as the gratefulness and love our clients show in return. Even through the pandemic when everything shut down, the Faith Café Board persevered and continued to safely and without interruption serve those in need while following all COVID-specific restrictions.

I fell in love with Holy Trinity the first time I walked through its doors in 2009, and I continue to be humbled by, inspired by, and grateful to the parishioners and staff. I look forward to the years ahead. Come, Holy Spirit!

GOOD NEWS FROM MARK

Mark Nieves, Music Director – music@h-t.org

It has been my privilege to serve as Music Director since 2005. I have so many generous and talented singers and instrumentalists of all ages that provide the beautiful music that support the liturgies here. We certainly make a joyful noise unto the Lord. For my music partner extraordinaire and friend, Ken Canedo, and all who serve, I am grateful!

GOOD NEWS FROM SARAH

*Sarah Dummer, Principal of Holy Trinity Catholic School
sdummer@htsch.org*

As this year comes to a close, I look back and reflect on the 12.5 years I've spent as a part of the Holy Trinity community. I have found so many moments of joy and faith here.

This year, I am particularly thankful for the movements of faith within the School community. A group of moms meet weekly to pray for our school, teachers, and students. A group of students meets monthly to pray the rosary together after school. Another group of students meet every-other week to engage in bible study during their lunch.

I am proud to be a part of such a faith-filled community and excited to be able to support these moments of faith in any way that I can. I'm looking forward to seeing what God will bring to our School community in 2024!

GOOD NEWS FROM ERICA

Erica Wills, Parish Admin – parish@h-t.org

I wear many different hats in my job, and the majority of my work happens behind the scenes. I genuinely enjoy this, though, because I get to see the Holy Spirit at work in countless little ways — and, sometimes, I get to play a part in it. A few examples:

Months ago, a parishioner was excited to find the exact number of a particular book available at the kiosk to give as gifts, but lamented not having a copy of their own. The day before Christmas Eve, I stumbled across another copy in the narthex. This surprised me, as I hadn't seen any for weeks. The next day, I stumbled across the parishioner before Mass, and the dots connected. Seeing the surprised delight spread across their face was the best gift I received that day.

I continue to receive notes from those attending Mass online due to circumstances that prevent them from in-person worship. Several are in another city or state, whose home parish doesn't live stream. Others are our own homebound parishioners, some who never thought they'd attend Mass at HT again. Those notes make working through the frustrations related to our live stream process completely worthwhile.

We often get calls from nurses and chaplains needing a priest to give their dying patient Last Rites. Whenever our priests are unavailable, I pray we won't get that phone call. Most times, we don't. On the occasions we do (and there was more than one this year), I am always aware of the Holy Spirit at work as I call around in search of a priest. By the grace of God, I've found one every time.

GOOD NEWS FROM KEN

*Ken Canedo, Pastoral Musician & Liturgical Accompanist
ken@h-t.org*

As we look back on 2023, I want to acknowledge a couple of blessings from my ministry with the parish.

First, I'm grateful for Resurrection Choir, our group of dedicated singers and musicians who have shared their music ministry at every Holy Trinity funeral for many years. Comprised of people from all of our choirs (5:30pm Vigil Choir, 9:30am Sunday Choir, and 11:15am Youth Choir) this group truly embodies the compassion of Jesus who wept at the passing of his friend Lazarus. Note that we do not call ourselves the "Funeral Choir" but the Resurrection Choir, for we bring the hope of the Risen Jesus to families in most need of his tender consolation.

Secondly, I am grateful that our 11:15am Youth Choir has grown by leaps and bounds this past Fall. Anchored by adult mentors, this choir is made up of singers from our Parish School (whom I work with during the week) and talented high school musicians who enhance our joyful sound through their skillful playing of flute, saxophone, clarinet, cello, bass, trumpet, and percussion. It is inspiring to see how our grade school and middle school singers are not shy when it comes to volunteering to serve as Cantor, even as our high schoolers continue to recruit more of their peers to join us in the band.

To have youth across all grade levels working together with caring adults who themselves began singing in church when they were young: this multigenerational gift exchange is what Music Ministry is all about!

GOOD NEWS FROM JULIE

Julie Mikkelsen, Bookkeeper – julie@h-t.org

Each day, I witness the generosity of our parishioners. God calls us to be thankful. This gratitude is shown in many ways, which I see when donations are given to our ministries. It warms my heart, and I'm so thankful to have the opportunity to converse and share our hearts when people desire to give to the church in a very potent way.

This year, I started volunteering as a greeter at Mass. I have made new friends who I get to see every week and share our hopes, struggles, and joys of life with. It is a true blessing to interact with so many wonderful people who I also consider friends. What a gift!
