GREETINGS FROM FR. BILL

This weekend we celebrate the birth of the church to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles. When you pray, to whom do you pray? Do you pray to the Father, or the Son, or the Holy Spirit? Or maybe all three at once? All answers are correct, though I think many might avoid the Holy Spirit.

This weekend and for the remainder of the week, I want to encourage you to focus your prayers and worship to the Holy Spirit. We have heard in the Scriptures that the Holy Spirit can really change things. Miracles can happen. Barriers can be broken. Hearts bound by addiction and wounds can be set free and healed. Remember, with God all things are possible. Do not be shy in your prayers and petitions to the Holy Spirit. Then, watch what happens. Maranatha! Come, Holy Spirit!

We will begin interviewing candidates for the Business Manager position after the application window closes this Wednesday, May 31st. If you have not yet submitted an application, you still have a few days to do so. The position is full-time and salaried, with benefits; expected start date is July 1st. If you/ someone you know:

- ✧ has a servant's heart;

- ✧ is familiar with basic business, accounting, and organizational practices;
- ✧ has basic skills with electronic technology, Microsoft Office, and QuickBooks;

Blessings to Zach Duggan, who was baptized and confirmed this weekend!

Congratulations to Sophia Ziels and Dylan Baluyut, who were married here this weekend! Blessings to you both, and all our married and engaged couples.

BRETT'S TWO CENTS

Hello, everyone! Boy, I'm gone for a weekend and everything changes — I'm now the parent of a college graduate, our Marian garden is totally revamped (more on that in a moment), and we once again have air conditioning in the church! Sorry about last weekend; I'm glad it was at least somewhat cooler than it had been earlier in the week.

If you haven't taken a look already, be sure to visit our beautiful Marian garden between the School and Church entrances. HT graduate and parishioner Jack Ryan coordinated the much-needed task of renovating the area as his Eagle Scout Service Project. Jack coordinated with us on appropriate plants and necessary supplies, organized a crew, and led the effort last Saturday to transform the garden.

The top photo to the left here is the "before" shot. Just to give you an idea of what all Jack and his crew did: the azalea and rhododendrons were unfortunately severely diseased, so they were removed along with several other bushes. Hebe, sedum, and lavender bushes were planted along with a few hydrangeas, as well as several clusters of gladiolus and dahlias that will come up next spring. Mary was moved and is once again gleaming under a new arbor that will eventually have roses climbing around it. The existing clematis was trellaced, new benches have been installed, and the stone path was redirected and leveled.

As you can see, the garden now looks amazing! Thank you, Jack, for all of your hard work and planning, and that of your volunteers. Kudos!

Bread for the World's 2023 Offering of Letters

Every year, Bread for the World organizes churches, community organizations, and people of faith from across the country to write letters and emails to their members of Congress who have the power to impact the policies and programs that can end hunger.

The Farm Bill is our nation's most important legislation on our national food system and is due to be renewed this year in September. As people of faith, we are called to advocate for people experiencing hunger and poverty – and we can do so by taking part in Bread for the World's 2023 Offering of Letters in support of the Farm Bill!

Our letter writing campaign will be held after all Masses next weekend, June 3-4. While enjoying your weekly coffee and doughnut, you will have the opportunity to personalize and sign letters to our Senators, asking them to remember the least among us as they work to renew this important legislation. You can also take a copy home and return it the following week.

In 2019 (the last time we participated in the Offering of Letters campaign), Holy Trinity wrote over 500 letters! Let's each take two minutes next weekend to lift our voices in solidarity with our neighbors in need. Visit www.bread.org to learn more.

TITAN CHIPS FOR VIRTUOUS BEHAVIOR

In January, Principal Sheridan challenged students to earn 100 “Titan Chips” for an end-of-the-year surprise. Chips were earned by each individual class collectively demonstrating virtuous behavior, including patience, moderation, reverence, responsibility, sincerity, honesty, and more. The whole school earned their big reward two weeks ago on May 16th — a visit from the Kona Ice Truck! It was a perfect day to have a sweet, ice-cold treat. Way to go, Titans!
